EDGE 2018
An overnight stay program for students to Experience Diversity, Growth and Excellence

PARTICIPANT EXPECTATIONS FORM

Welcome to the University of Maryland! We hope that this program will provide you with the opportunity to learn about everything the University of Maryland has to offer, begin to find your niche on campus and meet other prospective and current students.

As an EDGE program participant, we expect that you will:

• Attend all scheduled EDGE program events and remain for the full event;
• Remain with your host and keep your host informed of your whereabouts anytime you are not with her/him;
• Stay on campus at all times during the EDGE program; and
• Follow all residence hall, University of Maryland and state of Maryland laws/policies. This includes refraining from the use of alcohol and other banned substances during your stay.

Failure to comply with or adhere to any of the expectations as set forth by the Office of Undergraduate Admissions for the EDGE Overnight Stay Program may result in program dismissal, swift hearing with the Office of Student Conduct and the possibility of admission being rescinded.

My signature below indicates that I have reviewed and understand the policies associated with being an EDGE program participant and that I intend to adhere to these policies during my stay on campus.

Signature __________________________________________

Full Name (please print) _________________________________________

High School __________________________________________

Date ________________/2018

Cell phone ________________

You will be asked to complete and sign this form when you arrive for the EDGE program.

 Completion of this form is required for participation in the EDGE program ***